Dear Parents and Carers,

What a chilly week. Thankfully, signs of spring are all around, so hopefully, the weather will be warming up shortly. The summer term is always busy, with assessments, sports days, trips, new children and families visiting and our oldest pupils preparing to transition into their new secondary schools. Times of change will undoubtedly stir up a whole host of emotions for everyone. We will be working hard with our entire school community over the coming weeks to ensure we live our school values in everything we do, embracing resilience with every new opportunity we face. Have a great weekend, everyone. Julie Knock
