Responsible – Inquisitive – Confident – Inspired – Respectful

Dear Parents and Carers, What a lovely sunny, although slightly chilly at drop off, start to the summer term. This week we have been looking again at our school values and vision. Take a look at our values on our school website to find out why they are such an important part of our school. The School Council have been tasked with looking at creating a new School Charter. They had their first meeting today to talk about how and what needs to be done. This is the first part of our finding out about the Rights Respecting Schools initiative, which we are really keen to implement next academic year. Take a look at the Unicef, Rights Respecting Schools Website to find out more about it.

Have a lovely and warm weekend, everyone. Mrs Knock
