

Brede Bulletin

25th November 2022

Dear parents and carers, Thank you for all your kind words this week. I'm thrilled to be staying on at the school and continuing to working alongside you all. We started the week learning about waiting and Advent. We also talked about how some of the best gifts have no monetary value. You will have received an email with links to the carols we are learning. We would very much appreciate you putting these on at home to practice in preparation for the last week of term. Thank you to Miss Skepper who is teaching the children to sign Silent Night and has done her own YouTube instruction video. Also, a huge thank you to the PTFA mum's who have amassed a fantastic collection of prizes for the Christmas raffle. Please see below for more information on how to buy tickets and help the school. Have a great weekend everyone. Mrs Knock
